OFFICE OF
INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

Dear Readers of this Report:

It is a pleasure to present the Ninety-seventh annual Report of the Washington State Insurance Commissioner. This document covers official transactions and significant developments in the business of insurance for the period of January 1, 1990, through December 31, 1990. I feel this report can be a very useful tool in gaining a better understanding of the regulation of the insurance industry.

The bulk of the activities and transactions overseen by the Insurance Commissioner's Office for 1990 are outlined in the tables and recapitulations.

A large portion of this report is compiled from a computerized data base and record keeping system provided through the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) office. The publication of this data should not be construed as a confirmation by this office of the accuracy of any given figure.

Sincerely,

Dick Marquardt

Health (incl. dental, medicare, etc.)	3,136	35.25%
Title & Miscellaneous	462	5.19%

REASONS GIVEN FOR COMPLAINTS	TOTAL	% OF ALL ITEMS
Marketing/Sales Conduct	1,470	16.52%
Claims Handling Conduct	4,354	48.94%

Miscellaneous	1,899	21.35%
Items NOT Complaints	1,165	13.09%

The department handled 1,395 Services of Process against foreign and alien insurers and licensees, of which 130 were improper services requiring extra work. This compares to 1,276 in 1989 of which 152 were improper; 1,395 in 1988, of which 139 were improper; 1,444 in 1987; 1,641 in 1986; and 1,414 in 1985.

The Investigations Section opened 925 files on new matters and closed 985, leaving 234 pending at the close of 1990. The staff of seven professional investigators conducted 92 on-site financial examinations, contacted 326 licensees, and interviewed more than 350 witnesses or victims during 1990. They were able to recover money found due in 252 cases, estimated at approximately $179,000, and caused premium refunds in excess of $43,000 to be made to consumers. Several major investigations involving insurance agents and public adjusters resulted in license revocations which are pending because of demands for hearings.

There were 146 formal disciplinary proceedings commenced against licensees in 1990. Those proceedings included 36 license revocations or denials; 23 cease and desist orders; and 69 fines levied for a total of $72,700. Twelve orders were rescinded or terminated and 5 matters are pending. Three disciplinary hearings were held.

CONSUMER PROTECTION DIVISION REPORT FOR 1990

It should be noted that there were an additional 41 orders on general matters pertaining to insurance companies which were also issued in 1990 and are not included in the above proceedings. Two hearings were held concerning them.

The division participated in several rule-making proceedings, including a substantial revision to the Medicare supplemental insurance rules and amendments to the separate premium account rule. By the end of 1990 amendments were completed to improve the regulation of insurance provided through out-of-state group contracts, and a new regulation was prepared which will provide substantial disclosure to consumers of information they should have if they are considering the purchase of out-of-state health insurance through an association.

Based on measurements made four times during 1990, one week in each quarter, the Consumer Protection Division deputies averaged:

	Per Day	Per Week	For Year
Incoming Calls	596	2,979	154,908
Incoming Letters	146	730	37,986
People in the Office	29	146	7,605
TOTALS	771	3,855	200,499

Prior Years Totals:

1989: 198,432
1988: 201,669
1987: 190,008

Note: This does not measure complaints or inquiries, nor calls made or letters written by the Commissioner's employees. It measures only incoming calls, letters, and visits to the office. One complaint file can produce a number of contacts, such as the original complaint by mail, telephone or in person, followed by responses from agents and insurance company representatives. Moreover, many of the contacts are to obtain information, not to register complaints.

OFFICE OF

Dear Readers of this Report:

It is a pleasure to present the Ninety-eighth annual Report of the Washington State Insurance Commissioner. This document covers official transactions and significant developments in the business of insurance for the period of January 1, 1991, through December 31, 1991. I feel this report can be a very useful tool in gaining a better understanding of the regulation of the insurance industry.

The bulk of the activities and transactions overseen by the Insurance Commissioner's Office for 1991 are outlined in the tables and recapitulations. As an added feature this year, preceeding each line of business, the top thirty companies in order of market share are shown. We believe this will better summarize the activity of the primary carriers in each line.

A large portion of this report is compiled from a computerized data base and record keeping system provided through the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) office. The publication of this data should not be construed as a confirmation by this office of the accuracy of any given figure.

Sincerely,

Dick Marquardt

The "original conduct" of insurers was judged by the compliance officers to have been "not acceptable" in 20.38% of the files closed. This was down from 28.02% found unacceptable in 1990. Insurers' responses to this office were found to be untimely in 8.14% of the files.

Specific agents were identified in 905 matters reviewed by the compliance officers. In 31.71% of those files, the agent's original conduct was judged to be "not acceptable." This was down from 41.40% found unacceptable in 1990. Their responses to this office were untimely in 11.27% of the files. Compliance Officers continue to refine the division's ability to detect, measure and correct problems in a timely manner.

Based on measurements made four times during 1991--one week in each quarter--the Compliance Officers have averaged:

Incoming calls:
per day:	620	per week:	3,101.5	for the year:	161,278
Incoming mail:
per day:	133.35	per week:	666.75	for the year:	34,671

(Prior years: 1990: 200,499; 1989: 198,432; 1988: 201,669; 1987: 190,008;

> Note: The report of "Incoming contacts," above, is not a measure of complaints or inquiries, or of calls made or letters written by compliance officers. It is a measure only of incoming calls, letters and people--contacts we receive. One complaint can produce a number of contacts, such as the original complaint by mail, telephone or in person, followed by responses from agents and insurance company representatives. Moreover, many of the contacts are to obtain information, not to register complaints.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

The department handled 1,458 Services of Process against foreign and alien insurers and licensees, of which 146 were improper services requiring extra work. This compares to 1,265 in 1990 of which 130 were not proper, 1,276 in 1989 of which 152 were improper; 1,395 in 1988; and 1,444 in 1987.

The Investigations Section opened 845 files on new matters (compared to 925 in 1990) and closed 950. The staff conducted 151 on-site financial examinations up from 92 in 1990), contacted 225 licensees, and interviewed more than 200 witnesses or victims during 1991. They were able to recover or cause consumers to receive more than $800,000 in 201 cases.

Satisfactory explanations permitted 208 cases to be closed and 148 were concluded with counseling or reprimand. Alleged misrepresentations were the basis for 99 investigations, and conduct possibly indicating a licensee to be untrustworthy or incompetent was at the heart of 194 matters.

FORMAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

One hundred seven formal disciplinary proceedings were commenced involving licensees in 1991. Those proceedings included seven notices Not to License. Fifteen matters begun in 1990 were completed in 1991. The various proceedings included 30 license revocations or denials and 24 cease and desist orders. Forty-seven new orders, plus six carried over from 1990, resulted in the collection of fines amounting to $59,300. Three disciplinary hearings were held.

> It should be noted that there were an additional 46 orders issued by the Company Supervision Division, on general matters pertaining to insurance companies in 1991, which are not included in the above proceedings. Four hearings were held concerning them.

The division participated in several rule-making proceedings, two of which, in particular, were beneficial to consumers. The first clarified consumers' rights under the high risk health insurance pool. The second restricted the practice of insurers transferring their obligations under insurance policies to other companies without the consent of insureds. It also was responsible for WAC 284-12-090 which establishes the manner in which general agents may accept business from nonappointed agents, while leaving the consumers protected.
